Get Involved!

Festival organizers are working hard to create a diverse celebration of local arts and culture, and to roll them up in to a green festival for all to enjoy. The festival will include local musicians, artisans, crafters, art displays and sales, sidewalk sales, historical walks, displays of quilts and miniatures, street performers, dancers, entertainment for children, food vendors, games, and fun for all.

We are looking for local crafters, artisans, musicians, and purveyors of local culture to get involved!

We are looking for involvement from groups, individuals, and clubs to help host and support festival events and activities.

Can you contribute? Do you have something new to offer? Please contact us.
